READING IMPROVEMENT COURSES DISCONTINUED

The Office of Training's Reading Improvement program has been discontinued.

Requirements for training in this field will be met, as appropriate, by outside training facilities in the Washington area. Training Officers should discuss their requirements with the Registrar/TR, before submission of Form 136, Request for Training at Non-CIA Facility.

COURSES OFFERED BY OFFICE OF COMPTROLLER

Three courses will be presented by the Office of the Comptroller during the fall of 1958. These will be "Principles and Processes of Government Budgeting", "The Development of Budget Estimates", and "Cost Principles".

Announcement of dates of these courses will be made later, through the O/Comptroller.

REDUCED ENROLLMENT IN TWO INTELLIGENCE ORIENTATION COURSES

The auditorium of R & S Building has been reserved during October and November for a special training program. Consequently, two Intelligence Orientation courses, one beginning 20 October, and another, 17 November, have been scheduled to be presented in Room 2241 of R & S.

The seating capacity of Room 2241 requires that enrollment in each of these two courses be limited to 40 students. Registrar/TR recommends that, wherever possible, Training Officers schedule as many as possible for the Intelligence Orientation course which begins 8 September, or that they defer some enrollments until the January, 1959 course.

All other scheduled presentations of the Intelligence Orientation will be held in the R & S auditorium.

PETB NOW REQUIRED FOR SUPERVISION AND MANAGEMENT COURSES

The Professional Employees Test Battery will now be required for admission to OTR's Introduction to Supervision, Basic Supervision, and Basic Management courses. This one-day test is administered by the Assessment and Evaluation Staff/OTR, every Friday, beginning 0830 hours, in Room 1331 R & S Building.

Some employees may have completed PETB during EOD processing; others may have completed it before enrollment in OTR courses for which it is a prerequisite, namely: Intelligence Orientation (Phases I and II), Operations Support, Operations Familiarization, Operations, Communist Party Organization and Operations, and Audio-Countermeasures. Those who have not taken PETB and who plan to take Supervision, Management - or other courses that require it for admission - should consult their Training Officers who will make the necessary arrangements for them to take the test.

OTR'S LONG-TERM SCHEDULE PUBLISHED

The Office of Training has published its Long-term Schedule of courses for the period of September 1958 through June 1959. Copies have been distributed to offices of the Agency and to all Training Officers.

If OTR finds it necessary to change a scheduled date of a course, announcement will be made in the OTR Bulletin, or if necessary, in an OTR Special Bulletin.

TESTING IN FOREIGN LANGUAGES CONTINUES

We wish to remind our readers that OTR's foreign language proficiency testing is continuing, and that if they are interested in taking one or more of these tests they should check the schedule listed in Agency Notice ~~SECRET~~

25X1A

Although the Notice is directed particularly, to those who are eligible for foreign language Maintenance Awards during the months of July through December, 1958, those who think they have achieved a higher level in a language than indicated on their self-evaluation, or recorded as a result of an earlier test, may also be tested on the scheduled date. They will be eligible for consideration for language Achievement Awards. Those who may be ineligible for an award at this time but who may wish to test their current levels of skill should also make the necessary arrangements for the language test.

All proficiencies that are determined from these tests are forwarded for inclusion in the Agency's Language Qualifications Register.

INTELLIGENCE EXHIBITS IN SEPTEMBER

Employees of the Agency are invited to attend two exhibits to be presented in the R & S Auditorium as part of the Intelligence Orientation Course, Number 24. They have been scheduled as follows:

Support Exhibit
Wednesday 17 September
1400 - 1600 hours

Intelligence Products Exhibit
Thursday 18 September
0930 - 1200 hours

Guests from the Departments of State, Army, Navy, and Air Force have been invited to the Intelligence Products Exhibit.

CLERICAL SKILLS QUALIFICATIONS TESTS SCHEDULED FOR SEPTEMBER

Tests in shorthand and typewriting for employees who are required to meet the Agency's standards in these skills will be conducted on:

Monday, 8 September
Typewriting 1315 hours
Shorthand 1400 hours

Monday, 22 September
Typewriting 1315 hours
Shorthand 1400 hours

All tests are given in Room 508 1016 16th Street, N.W. Registration should be arranged by supervisors through their Personnel Placement Officers.

Employees who do not qualify at the Agency level of clerical skills may be enrolled in one of the Clerical Refresher Programs in which different levels of shorthand and typing are taught.

NON-CIA EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES IN THE WASHINGTON AREA

The Information Branch of the Registrar Staff/TR has received catalogs for the Fall Semester from colleges and universities in the Washington area.

These catalogs are available for reference in Room 2611 Quarters Eye. Or if you wish, information on courses, schedules, and requirements for admission may be obtained by calling extension 4625.

Of particular note at this time are dates of registration:

REGISTER NOW
FOR FALL TRIMESTER OF
VOLUNTARY LANGUAGE TRAINING PROGRAM

It is again time to register for the Voluntary Language Training Program. The Fall Trimester will begin on Monday, 8 September and will continue through Friday, 19 December of this year.

This is the program organized by the Office of Training to provide foreign language instruction before and after working hours. This new term will be the fifth trimester since the Program was inaugurated in May of '57. Since then 143 classes have been conducted in 14 languages: Arabic, Chinese, Czech, Finnish, French, German, Greek, Italian, Japanese, Persian, Polish, Portuguese, Russian, and Spanish. Of the total registration - 1,062 students - 64% completed the trimesters. Quite a few of these have already attained officially recognized levels of proficiency and they have thereby qualified themselves to be considered for assignments requiring use of the language, and meanwhile, have qualified for language awards.

Each trimester is 15 weeks and students, in addition to five hours of formal instruction, are required to complete seven hours of outside work each week; five of the seven, must be spent working with language tapes and records. For convenience of students, Training's laboratories are open from Monday through Friday and from 1000-1400 hours on Saturday.

Staff employees who are interested in taking advantage of this unusual opportunity to acquire, improve, or to maintain their language skills are urged to register immediately for the coming semester. The Language and Area School/OTR will organize a class in a language when a minimum of five requests has been received. It is most important to register at the earliest possible date since no plans for a class will be made until the required number of applications for a language course has been received in the Registrar's office. Employees may request study in any foreign language - not only those in which instruction has been given previously.

Each applicant should submit a Form 73, Request for Training. On it he should specify his preference for attending a before-hours or an after-hours class. A Student enrolling for the first time and at the elementary level, or one presently enrolled in the Summer Trimester and who wishes to continue in the fall, needs only to follow this procedure. However, an employee enrolling for the first time and at a level above that of the beginner, in addition to completing Form 73, must be interviewed by a member of the Staff of the Language and Area School/OTR to determine his levels of proficiency for assignment in an appropriate class. For an appointment for an interview, call [REDACTED] Coordinator for the Voluntary Language Training Program, or Mrs. [REDACTED] on extension 4027.

Inquiries on matters of enrollment should be made of the Registrar/TR, extension 4005.

Basic Country Survey #1

30 September - 4 December 1958

25X1A9a This part-time course on Italy, offered for the first time, will be conducted for ten weeks from 30 September through 4 December 1958. Classes will meet on Tuesday and Thursday from 0900 to 1230 hours in Room 2132 Eye Building. A pre-enrollment interview with the Chief Instructor, Mr. F. [REDACTED] is required and may be arranged by calling extension 4437. Applications for registration should be in the office of the Registrar/TR before the close of business, Tuesday, 16 September.

The course is designed for personnel who cannot yet be considered over-all experts in Italian affairs. It will combine a study of essential facts with an analysis of the major problems of Italy. Emphasis will be placed on such problems as: the continued strength and potential of the Communist Party, (largest in the Free World); the reliability and contributions of Italy as a major partner in the Western defense system; the prospects for the Christian Democratic Party to solve outstanding social and economic difficulties (with particular reference to the south) and an understanding of Italian mentality. These problems will be stressed in formal lectures and will be considered after students have familiarized themselves with basic factual data as needed. Students will participate in frequent discussions led by guest speakers, Chief Instructor, or members of the class.

Prospective students are advised to read Henry Stuart Hughes, The United States and Italy (Cambridge, Harvard University, 1953) and Muriel Grindrod, The Rebuilding of Italy (London, Royal Institute of International Affairs, 1955). These books are required texts. It is recommended that, in addition, students look at Gerardo Zampaglione, Italy (New York, Frederick A. Praeger, 1956) and Leonardo Olschki, The Genius of Italy (Ithaca, Cornell University Press, 1954). Copies of all of these books are available in the LAS Library, Room 2129 Eye Building. Additional information on the course may be obtained at the same office, extension 4437, or at the office of the Registrar/TR, extension 4005.

Auditors are welcome to attend both lectures and discussions as well as any of the films which may be available. If you wish to attend as an auditor and have the approval of your supervisor, please notify your Training Officer who will make your reservation at least 24 hours in advance by calling extension 4437. Admission will be on a space-available basis.

All class time not accounted for in the schedule is reserved for enrolled students.

Systems and Procedures Course

The American Management Association's Systems and Procedures Course provides comprehensive training in the principles, skills, and techniques of administrative systems work. The course is given in three one-week units, during a period of about three months. Unit I deals with Survey and Analysis of Administrative Systems and Procedures; Unit II, Diagnosis and Improvement of Administrative Systems and Procedures; and Unit III, Managing the Systems and Procedures Function. Course leaders are operating executives from business and industry. The dates of the course are: Unit I, 22-26 September 1958; Unit II, 27-31 October 1958; Unit III, 1-5 December 1958.

The Systems and Procedures Course is designed for:

Experienced systems engineers who require a broader concept of the systems function, and for the newcomers to the field

Systems group supervisors, who may require a review of basic and advanced systems concepts

Line and staff personnel who are responsible for directing their own systems groups or who are starting a new group

Management personnel whose work relates to that of the Systems Department
